Helpful Information for future chairs

What worked or didn't work for this project?

What worked: Our guest was a Cary Jaycees member, so it's might be a good idea for the future to email a truncated list of upcoming events to the state directors of other local chapters. The special exhibits can be seen in about an hour...so it's a really good event for people who are busy. The people who went really enjoyed the exhibit and it was timed to go out for lunch after we were finished with the museum.

What didn't work: Meeting at 10am on Saturday was too early for a couple of people. So meeting in the afternoon for the exhibit might have drawn a larger crowd.
