Helpful Information for future chairs

Because Amber Neill, Brody Underhill, and Sharon Worthington were in the play, we were able to get some inside information about when to get to the church and how to try to reserve seats for people. In addition, because the three board members that were in the play advertised to their friends from other chapters, we also had guests from Hickory/Raleigh, Dare County, and Durham. It is important to get there at LEAST 30-45 minutes before the play to be able to have the group sit together. It is also important to remind members that you will be sitting on church pews for several hours, so if they have a bad back or other injuries, they might have a difficult time sitting on a pew for that long.
