Helpful Information for future chairs

It is difficult to have a Random Sushi Night Wednesday-Saturday because Akai Hana is always very crowded. Mondays and Tuesdays are usually the best days to have this event. It's also helpful if you don't schedule it during the same week as Cuisine Night so people don't have to pick between the two if they are on a tight budget. This event normally occurs when there isn't a lot going on ID-wise and something is needed to supplement the calendar. Akai Hana does NOT take reservations, but I have always called them just to give them a heads-up that a large-ish party will be coming. They seem to appreciate it, even if they don't really take it to heart. So far, our Random Sushi Nights have been on November 6, January 26, March 28, with more to come.
